IVUN Announces Educational Conference Calls

Responding to a request from long-time users of home mechanical ventilation, IVUN will offer a series of hour-long educational sessions via the telephone starting in early fall.

Long-time vent users, who are aging, many times are isolated in their communities without real-time contact with experts and other users.

You are invited to suggest topics you would like explored to assist you and your family in making decisions about home mechanical ventilation.

Is there an expert you’d like to hear? Send your ideas to Joan L. Headley at info@ventusers.org by August 1, 2012.

The date, time and topic of each call will be announced in Ventilator-Assisted Living, IVUN Membership Memo, on www.ventusers.org and on IVUN’s Facebook page. The call is free, but reservations will be required, and available space will be first-come, first-served. To participate, all you need is a telephone.

These educational sessions are supported by the March of Dimes.
